JUSTICE PROJECT 2021-2022

SGA

WITH INTENT & PURPOSE

Through the Student Government Association's Justice Project funding, the Anderson Freeman Resource Center will be leading two trips during the 2021-22 academic year, hosting a speaker, and providing general programming for each affinity group the AFC supports.

The trips or "Travel-Learning Opportunities" will be learning experiences related to the history of marginalized and minoritized people in the United States and globally. We will be taking students to Indigenous peoples' historical preservation sites in New York during the Fall. In the Spring, we will have a road trip to DC to visit the Smithsonian's various historical museums, visiting the Schomburg Center in New York along the way. Students will complete a visual travel log of pictures, quotes, personal reflections, and lessons taken from the experience, which will be sent out via email to the entire campus as well as hosted on the AFC's website.

For events, we will be celebrating each nationally-observed heritage or history month that occurs within the academic year, Kwanzaa, and a Pride week. These trips and events are meant to be intentional learning and celebration activities for our students and impactful moments for our entire community at Middlebury.

All remaining funding at the end of the year will be dedicated to purchasing small necessities for the AFC lounges.

In Honor of Black History Month, there will be sightseeing fun down the East Coast, including visits to the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture in Harlem, the National Museum of African American history, and Culture and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum (both in DC).

*Both trips have required group learn-and-share end projects and pre-trip delegation meetings.
